The Women Shelter in North Iceland

- The Women Shelter in North Iceland is a shelter for women and their children that can not stay at home due to violence on behalf of a partner or other members of the household. The shelter is also for women who have been raped and for women who are victims of trafficking.
- The stay in the shelter is free of charge for women and their children.
- During the stay at the shelter, women and their children are provided with food and other necessities for daily life.
- During the stay, women are offered interviews, consult and support on the next steps, depending on the women's wishes and terms.
- The shelter also provides interviews to women who have experienced violence or currently live with a violent partner. Where they can get support, advice and/or information in relation to how to leave their abusive partner, without formally staying at the shelter.

The women's shelter in North Iceland is located in Akureyri and to contact the shelter call 561 1206 or email nordurland@kvennaathvarf.is, it is open 24 hours a day.
